I trust that you will be blessed by this issue of Our Finest Hour.

The days we are now living in require of us to understand the times and seasons and to respond adequately to what is now required of us to move on into a New Day.

These days are not for the faint hearted but remember, we can be in the Lord Jesus more than conquerors.

30th October 2018
Recently I have experienced the replay of dreams that I had a few years ago. This is significant in as much as when a dream is repeated a second time, the time of its fulfilment is close.

When Pharaoh had a dream twice Danial said this to him.

And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

Genesis 41:32

I had this dream a number of years ago which I very recently had again.

I had a dream in which I was an observer of a large company of people who have come to a set of crossroads. Four roads had met forming these cross roads and all the people had come down the same road and now faced four options. They had the option of proceeding right, forward or left or they could return from where they had come from. In this dream I was also aware of the Lord who also was observing this. I looked at the Lord and without speaking I conveyed to Him the thought of “what is going on here?” Then I began to understand the meaning of this situation, there was no spoken communication between me and the Lord, but nevertheless there was very clear unspoken communication between us. There are times and seasons in God, some of these seasons are critical, some are optional, some are time sensitive and have far reaching ramifications. We need to understand the difference between the perfect will of God and the permissive will of God.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Romans 12:2

Life is full of choices and it is these choices that determine how we live our lives and how our lives end up.
Many times we weave in and out of the perfect will of God resulting in our lives being a mix which limits us greatly in our walk with the Lord. The permissive will of God is that which God permits but is not His perfect will for us; this often results in the loss of many privileges and blessings. Our protection against the enemy is predicated upon you and I being in the perfect will of God, we are told to first submit ourselves to God before we can resist the enemy; James 4:7. Because we all have free will and the right to choose God permits Christians to continue in the permissive will of God albeit with limited access to much of His grace and privileges. Living on this level is not sufficient to protect us from the encroaching darkness. The prophet Isaiah prophesied about these End–Times in Isaiah.

For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

Isaiah 60:2

This phrase “Gross Darkness” in the Hebrew language has the thought of dripping with thick darkness. In order to survive this darkness it is needful for us to be in the perfect will of God.

As I continued to observe what was happening in this dream I became aware that each road had a name. The road they walked down to get to the Cross Roads was called The Past. The road to the right was called Selfishness, the road to the left was called Fear and the road straight ahead was called Glory. I then began to see that some turned back and began to walk back to where they had come from. These people could not leave the past behind and move on into new and greater things in God. Some began to turn to the left and go off in that direction, this primarily was because of fear. This fear was generated from not being able to trust the Lord with their lives and move on into the unknown, their lives were reasonably comfortable and they were not about to change or risk changing this. Others turned to the right and went down the road of selfishness, simply they wanted to do and go where they wanted, and this selfish motivation determined their direction. Finally a group began to walk straight ahead and began walk up the street called Glory and I noticed that as they began to eagerly walk down this road it got lighter and lighter. I then turned to see the others who were walking down the other roads and as they walked it began to get darker. This encroaching darkness was very slow at first almost imperceptible but the darkness slowly increasing the further they went down the road. As I looked at these people upon whom the darkness was slowly encroaching the story of The Frog and the Kettle came to mind.

The Frog and the Kettle
A famous experiment was once conducted that involved placing a frog in a kettle of water. Don’t know who ever thought up this experiment, but it serves as an excellent illustration. If the frog was placed in a pot of boiling water, the frog would immediately jump out so as not to be scalded. Then the frog was placed into a pot of cold the water. As the frog sat contently in the water, the water was heated one degree at a time. The frog adapted to the gradual changes in temperature until it boiled to death.

Many Christians today are not aware of the encroaching darkness and are adapting to it without even knowing. Finally I became aware of the fact that what the Lord was showing me in this dream was Time Sensitive, in other words many Christians were being brought to a point of decision in their lives and their response to these decisions were limited in time. We cannot afford to be in the permissive will of God. God is now proving those who He can trust, over the next few years we will see moves of God and changes in the church unparalleled in history, and history will truly become His-Story reaching its fullness and glory in the few years that we have left.

On 28th of March 2008 the Lord gave me a dream which had profound implications regarding the coming harvest.

I found myself in the dream standing on a beach, the tide was almost full and somehow that seemed significant, the water gently lapped the sandy shoreline and a light coloured mist hung over the water a few hundred meters offshore, the atmosphere was crisp yet warm. Suddenly a boat appeared through the mist heading towards me, a man was standing holding a tiller and cheerfully called to me saying “do you want to come fishing?” I hesitated for a moment then said ok pushing the boat out at the same time jumping in. The man’s face emanated a glow that was not of this world, he had a rugged yet refined look; he seemed very focused and determined. I had the strange feeling that I had been here before but could not quite put my finger on it. The boat quickly moved out into deep water and stopped, the water was teeming with fish and it almost seemed like the fish wanted to be caught. This man looked at me and said “my name is Peter” with that he threw the net out and what seemed like no time at all he was pulling it in again and the net was teeming with fish. As soon as the fish hit the deck of the boat they turned into people of all ages. I was struggling to get my mind around this unusual phenomenon when Peter continued. “Jesus was involved in two fishing trips while He walked this earth, one at the beginning of His ministry and one towards the end of his ministry”. Luke 5:4-10 and John 21:6-8 Peter continued; “on the first fishing trip the net broke but on the second trip the net held, so it will be in this final harvest the net will hold, the net broke in the early church and much was lost but it will not be so in your day, those who have left the wilderness behind and have crossed over into the promised land are those who have one goal and motive which is only to build the Kingdom of God. Jealousy, anger, selfish ambition no longer will hinder them nor spoil the harvest. Pride no longer motivates them and they have come into rest. The final harvest has begun and will increase in intensity until the end. The end is now in sight the finishing line is in view, what begun at Pentecost will finish in your day. The great cloud of witnesses watch with great joy and anticipation for the final consummation. Just as the harvest began with one generation in my day so it will finish with this present generation in your day. My generation saw the foundations laid, your generation will see the building completed. There will be many in your generation that will overcome all things, even death, your generation saw tares sown into the harvest field, your generation will see all the tares removed. The harvest wave is upon you, you will accomplish in one generation what hundreds of generations have longed to see. The Feast of Pentecost must give way to the Feast of Tabernacles your generation will accomplish that which the church could not over the past two thousand years. The glorious shadow that emanated from the early church was just that, a shadow, you will see the fullness of the glory of God in one generation manifested in such a way that nothing will be impossible, the miracles we saw were just a foretaste of what was to come”. Peter paused, looking at the people in the boat he said “see how the boat has now grown” I was amazed the boat was now huge and was accommodating so many people it was impossible to estimate how many people were now in the boat. Peter continued .... “The seed of early church martyrs will blossom in your generation, one seed will produce countless multitudes in the harvest of your day, they watch with gratitude to the Lord for allowing them to be a part of what you will experience. This seed will explode into continuing ever increasing harvests until the Lord returns, they have waited to see this day”. Peter looked at me and said; “tell the Christian leaders of your day if they seek to profit by this harvest and build their own kingdoms with the harvest, they will be destroyed. This harvest is Holy this fruit is precious if you cause any to stumble you will surely be destroyed”. I felt the force and gravity of what Peter had just said, it hit me like a hammer blow and I had to steady myself somewhat in order not to miss anything more Peter had to say. Peter continued ... “Purity of heart is required for those who are to be involved in gathering this harvest, it is the Lords harvest not your harvest, He has waited for this with great longing and anticipation” ...

Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

James 5:7-8

Finally Peter said ... “don’t be impetuous like I was, follow the Lord of the Harvest, true sons of God are led by the Spirit of God”. I began to feel a holy fear which triggered a determination never to hurt or hinder the harvest, never to use it for my own ends and purposes. Peter looked at me and said “great grace will be given to your generation but great accountability will be required” with that he was gone, and I awoke

Many years ago I had another very powerful dream which recently was repeated.

In this dream I got into an elevator As the elevator moved up my life was described on each floor of the elevator. As the elevator reached each floor the door opened and on the wall opposite was written the events and purposes and what was happening at that level and time of my life. Eventually there were just 2 floors left. The elevator finally reached the penultimate floor, the door opened and on the opposite wall was written: “The release of finance, a transfer of wealth of the wicked to the righteous”. I walked outside and there was a huge satellite dish and two large Angels and a Flag which read A Prophetic voice to the Nations. There were no floors left, I was outside right at the top of the building.

I believe right now we have reached these two top floors in God’s calendar. Release of finance and the wealth of the wicked to come to the righteous, and every nation now will hear the Gospel of the Kingdom.

The point is this: we are now almost at the top. Release of finance, and the Gospel will be preached to every tribe and nation.

We are the most privileged generation of all time the end is in sight and we have to finish the race. We are on the final lap.

I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:11
Time and chance impact light upon us all. How we respond to these times and seasons determine our future. There are set times in God’s plans and purposes that are crucial or central to our growth and development in God. These set times cannot be changed.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

Psalms 102:13

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

Ecclesiastes 3:1

And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

Revelation 22:10

There are times that God in His grace can extend time in order to give us more time to repent. However that extra time has already been factored into God’s perfect time.

The story of the journey of the children of Israel from Egypt to the Promised Land was written for and applies primarily to this last generation on the earth.

Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

1 Corinthians 10:11

When they came to the river Jordan, a place where they had to cross over in the land promised to them by God, they refused to cross over. This was a Kairos moment which cost them another 40 years eventually resulting in them dying in the wilderness. I don’t know about you! But to me this is very scary.

For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

Luke 19:43-44

Israel has been looking for and waiting for the coming of the Messiah. However when the Messiah did come they missed it. They did not recognize the time and the season. The sad thing is they are still looking for the messiah.

It’s time to move on take hold of God and take hold of your inheritance and destiny which was given to you before this world was created.

We must make a choice before God, the choice is to leave the old and proceed into the new.

2 Chronicles 20:20
Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

Let’s join with Christ in His prayer: “Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven!”

Ticking Time Bomb —North Korea (2005)
I received this revelation on the Day of Atonement 2004. This Word Given in the Shepherd’s Rod Volume X Titled: The Belt of Truth in 2005 is so important to hear and heed today (2018)!

Ticking Time Bomb — North Korea (2018)
This warning was released on page 138 of the 2005 Shepherd’s Rod Volume X.

I was shown that North Korea was a real threat and a ticking time bomb. However, the Church can and must defuse this bomb with intercessory prayer. It is time to rise up and drive back the spirit of death and destruction. True intercessory prayer can and must stop this ticking clock. Do you see how important it is to take the prophetic warnings very seriously?

This Word Given in the Shepherd’s
Rod Volume X Titled: The Belt of Truth for 2005 is so important to hear and heed today in 2018!

All you have to do to see the power of prayer is watch as God reveals the power of intercessory prayer. We see unprecedented events unfolding before our eyes concerning the two leaders of North Korea and South Korea. The President of the United States of America will meet in a few days with the Leader of North Korea, nothing like this has happened in your lifetime. Continue to pray, asking that God’s wisdom will be given in these meetings.

I also warned about rivers of lava flowing in the streets and ash in the air.

All Creation Is Crying Out! From ABOVE and BELOW!
All of Creation Is Crying Out! Longing for Saints to step into their true destiny (see Romans 8:19). ! The Earth will shake, and rivers of fire will flow as the depths of the Earth are swelling. All Creation is in travail or birthing pains!

You can see this prophetic word unfolding each moment in the Kilauea volcano Hawaii. Geologists have warned that steam-driven explosive eruptions could hurl “ballistic blocks” that weigh several tons as far as a half a mile. The eruptions could send dust and ash as far as 25 miles away, this is manifested in earthquakes and mighty mountains are erupting, spewing ash and rivers of fire across the lands. Storms over water are more frequent and fierce than any time in recorded history. We see this manifested in strong winds, heavy rains and huge waves.

You can read about it on page 101 Shepherd’s Rod 2018.

Worldwide major volcanic and seismic disturbances on levels not seen in our time. The center of the earth is quickly expanding. The mountains will blow, and the rivers of fire will flow. Expect to see ash in the air and rivers of burning lava flowing. We will see seismic earthquakes and volcanic activity at an all-time high. As the Earth shutters, the bowels of the Earth are convulsing.

Expect to see more earthquakes than ever in the history of the earth. Rocks will tumble and rumble down. Waves will roar, and winds will rush. Truly the mountains and rocks will cry out.

A Time of Revealing!
A time of uncovering what evil people have been concealing.... this is time to come clean. Those covering their sins will not prosper. You can see this too is taking place with “me too” events and the uncovering of many evil deeds. You can read about it on page 104 Shepherd’s Rod 2018.

Beloved, please see how important it is to pray about these prophetic words and warnings.

God bless you!
S peaking in context of the Last Days (Luke 21:25-28) the Lord Jesus warned us, saying

“Take heed that you not be deceived” Luke 21:8

We are now living in those days. Deception is rampant, even in the church. False teachings abound. Multitudes of professing Christians, without realizing it, have readily received doctrines of demons that have come from church pulpits and through the internet. Erroneous teachings have sidelined many in the church, keeping them from knowing and doing God’s will. This is Satan’s plan. By deceiving believers, the power and effectiveness of the church, both individually and corporately, is significantly diminished if not completely nullified in many.

By it’s very nature, deception causes us to not know that we are deceived. We can even feel “comfortable” and believe that we are “blessed” when we are deceived. When the time comes for each one of us to stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ, there will be no more deception. Everything will be brought before the blazing brilliance of His light. The apostles were given revelation of the Judgment Seat of Christ (2 Cor. 5:9-11) They wrote warnings about the possibility of some of us not being properly prepared for that Day. It is a terrifying thing to stand before the Lord at the end of our life and find out that we walked in deception and did not do His will.

“Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men”

2 Corinthians 5:11

If we are wise, we want to walk in the fullest measure of His light that is available to us now, and not have any surprises on that Day.

The Bible has much to say about “deception” and how we can avoid falling into it. This is not an exhaustive study on the subject as there is not room for such in an article like this. However, we want to look at two of the primary reasons we are deceived, and then look at Jesus’ counsel on how to walk free from deception. Almost all deception comes from one of two reasons:

1) Not knowing, and/or not obeying the Word of God

2) The condition of our hearts.

First, the Lord Jesus Himself told his listeners that they were in error because they did not know His Word. “You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.” Matthew 22:29

“But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.” James 1:22

Neglecting to regularly read and study the Bible, with the intention of doing what it says, leaves us wide open for deception. Without knowledge of and obedience to God’s Word we walk in darkness. “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” Psalm 119:105

“The entrance of Your words gives light; It gives understanding to the simple.” Psalm 119:130

Not only do we need to read the Bible, but we need to read ALL of it. “The entirety (sum) of Your word is truth, and every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.” Psalm 119:160

We can’t pick and choose some parts of the Bible and neglect or reject other parts of the Scripture. If we do this we are deceived. It is the SUM of His Word that reveals truth.

It is not hard to build false teachings by using only certain parts of Scripture that we like and avoiding other parts that seem hard. It is a very common practice today. Some ministers propagate false teachings unintentionally because they themselves are deceived and don’t study the Word faithfully. Others know the truth and, according to the apostle Paul, intentionally deceive with trickery, cunning craftiness and deceitful plotting. “That we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, 15 but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ” Ephesians 4:14-15

Among the many false teachings today, there is a distorted grace message that goes beyond the boundaries of the whole counsel of Scripture. It has become widespread error today. There are also those who teach that ever since the cross, God doesn’t judge anymore. No one could ever believe these kinds of errors if they had read their Bible. These damaging doctrines have produced carnality and compromise in those who are deceived by them.

There is a “theology” coming out of California in the USA that has infected much of the body of Christ around the world. This teaching states that “Jesus is perfect theology”. They say that we should look at Jesus’ walk and His ministry during His 3-1/2 years, and that is our theology. If there is anything contrary to what Jesus said or did in those 3-1/2 years, we don’t accept it. For example, they teach that Jesus only does positive (according to human standards) things like calm storms and heal the sick. He never judges or is involved in anything negative. (Again, this is “negative” according to human standards, not God’s)

That sounds good on the surface, doesn’t it? However, Jesus’ ministry is not limited to His 3-1/2 years in Israel. Those who teach this are neglecting the ministry of Jesus in the book of Revelation and also rejecting many other Scriptures in the Gospels, the Book of Acts and the rest of the Bible.

We are told in 1 Corinthians, chapter 10 that God judged the children of Israel for sexual immorality, for complaining and for tempting God. Because of His judgments, thousand fell dead in the wilderness. 1 Cor. 10:4 says that the Rock that was with them (in the wilderness when they were judged) was Christ! We are also told in verse 11 that “all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.”

Yes, it was the Lord Jesus who was with them in the wilderness. It was He who judged them. What happened to them is a warning to us today.

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.”

Hebrews 13:8

In Revelation Chapter One, the same apostle John who laid his head on the bosom of the Lord Jesus at the Last Supper fell like a dead man at the revelation of Jesus on the island of Patmos. Jesus is revealed with fire in His eyes, feet like brass, a voice like the sound of many waters, and His face shining like the sun (Revelation 1:14-16).

In Revelation chapters 2 and 3 the Lord Jesus’ ministry to the seven churches of Asia is recorded for all in the church age to learn and heed. The Lord Jesus evaluates each church, letting them know that He knows all of our works. He commends them for what is right and rebukes them, in love, for what is wrong. He encourages them by offering rewards to those who overcome. He warns them of judgments they will suffer if they fail to repent and overcome.

The church at Laodicea is exhorted to repent and overcome their lukewarm condition so that they might “sit down with Him” on His throne. The Lord makes it clear to them that if they do not repent, He will vomit them out of His mouth. (Revelation 3:14-22)

The Lord affirmed the good things in the church at Thyatira but also confronted them because they allowed Jezebel to teach and seduce His servants (Rev. 2:18-29). He promised the church at Thyatira “power over the nations” if they repented and overcame. He also warned them concerning tolerating Jezebel:

“And I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent.22 Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds. I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works.”

Revelation 2:21-23

The Lord Jesus is revealed as One who will judge (including using sickness and premature death) and recompense churches according to their deeds.

The leadership of the Lord Jesus is revealed throughout the book of Revelation as He releases judgments on the earth and brings in a great harvest of souls “from all nations, tribes, peoples and tongues” (Rev. 7:9).

In Revelation chapter 15 the saints in heaven are celebrating the judgments of God because they result in nations turning to worship Him. They sing a song called “the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb”. This signifies that the same types of judgments that occurred in Moses day are now occurring through the leadership of the Lord Jesus at the end of the age. What did the judgments do in Moses day?

1) They broke the evil Pharaoh’s power as his army was drowned
2) the judgments liberated God’s people from oppression,
3) they caused all the nations around about them to learn to fear the God of Israel.

The judgments of the Lord will accomplish the same things at the end of the age. In heaven they are celebrating the result of His judgments on the earth. They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying:

“Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints!
4 Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, For Your judgments have been manifested.”

Revelation 15:3-4

“All nations shall come and worship before You, for Your judgments have been manifested”. They are not celebrating the pain and disruption that people experienced during the judgments, they are celebrating that nations have learned righteousness and repented. They now worship the King of Kings because of the judgments. Because of the temporal judgments they will not suffer eternal judgment.

“For when Your judgments are in the earth, The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.”

Isaiah 26:9b

The people of the world will learn righteousness from the judgments of God. Everything God does, including His judgments, is done from His love. His judgments are intended to give us a course correction so that we do not suffer eternal loss.
The #MeToo movement has become a worldwide phenomenon that has been searched for on Google in 196 countries. The shift in culture has been palpable and possibly, for the first time in history, the world has been put on notice that women's movements, at one time perceived to be fledging, grassroots movements, are not to be ignored. For the first time, as momentum of this awakening has pushed forward, men and women around the globe are starting to pay attention on a much larger scale.

The #TimesUp movement shares a similar vision with #MeToo for women’s empowerment. However, there are differences in their specific goals. The organization’s aim is to create concrete change, leading to safety and equality in the workplace. Therefore, #TimesUp is considered to be a solution-based, action oriented next step in the #MeToo movement. High profile leaders in Hollywood such as Reese Witherspoon, Natalie Portman and Shonda Rhimes implemented this vision with a small group of 300 women who are now seeing results globally.

Obviously, any movement can be taken to political extremes and used in a negative way, and the enemy always tries to pervert what The Lord is doing. Though empowerment of the women’s movement may be new information for the world, women have always been God’s secret weapon.

The kingdom has its own share of radical women who challenged the patriarchal rulers of the day. Moses’ mother challenged Pharaoh’s genocidal decree when she preserved the life of the one who would eventually lead millions of Hebrews to freedom. Rahab held the keys to the taking of Jericho, and by turning them in the right direction she assured the fall of the fortress city. Samuel’s mother, Hannah, cried out to God for Samuel, the greatest prophet and judge that Israel ever knew, to be born.

I gleaned powerful examples from Ed Silvoso’s book Women, God’s Secret
Pulling Down Strongholds

God continues to demonstrate His word in the giftedness of women. Priscilla was part of the team that founded the church in Ephesus, the site of the greatest encounter recorded in the book of Acts. She was right there in the epicenter of God’s power when Artemis was dethroned and the demonic socioeconomic structure that had controlled Ephesus was destroyed.

Perception of Spiritual Things

Women have an extraordinary sensitivity to spiritual occurrences. That is why Jesus revealed two of the most powerful truths in the gospel to women. He told Martha that He is the Resurrection and the life in John 11:25-27 and in John 4:26 He told the Samaritan woman that He is living water.

Ministering to Jesus’ Heart

In Matthew 26:7-12 we see a sublime act of worship,

“...a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table. When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked. “This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor.” Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me. The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have me. When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.”

Matthew 26:7-12

Sad, the disciples who observed this precious outpouring did not comprehend the value of her actions. She was accused of wasting a valuable flask of perfume as her intentions were misread and judged through a cost effective financial grid.

Consequently, one of the main reasons that Christianity spread in the ancient world so quickly, in its early years, is because its message restored honor and inner worth to half of the world’s population: women. Romans had such a low opinion of women that men commonly had recreational sex with women because women were perceived to be inherently inferior. Jewish rabbis completely silenced women in synagogues, and pagans used women as temple prostitutes.

It makes perfect sense that one of the purposes of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit was to restore honor to women.

“And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days.”

Joel 2:28-29

The following powerful spiritual attributes are given to women in God’s word:
Courage
Can you imagine what the political climate was like in Jerusalem in the days after Jesus’ crucifixion? Yet, even though His body was under 24-hour military guard while the disciples were in hiding, Mary Magdalene bravely risked her life to go to the sepulchre of a convicted criminal. Mary, the mother of Mark, fearlessly hosted a large prayer meeting while Herod was shedding apostolic blood all over Jerusalem (Acts 12:12). In Acts 16:40, Lydia made her home available to the entire church in a time of violent opposition.

Faith
When Paul encouraged Timothy in his gifts he reminded him that his faith inheritance came from his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice in 2 Timothy 1:5.

Messengers of the Gospel
By first appearing to women on Resurrection Day, Jesus made them the first Messengers of the Good News of the Gospel. Women were the first evangelists, teachers, and witnesses to the Resurrection. Remember, one of the main purposes of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit was to restore honor to women and Jesus took care great care to position an entire gender to receive a promotion by placing these witnesses at the tomb.

It seems that Paul was disavowing women in Ephesus from exercising spiritual authority and teaching. But let’s take a closer look. Clearly, he understood that Timothy had worked side by side with Priscilla and according to Acts 18:26 she, along with her husband, had fruitfully taught Apollos. There has been no small amount of controversy surrounding the Apostle Paul’s admonition to women in 1 Corinthians 14:34-35.

“Women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission, as the law says. If they want to inquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home...”

1 Corinthians 14:34-35

It makes much more sense that Paul’s instruction to remain silent was primarily because other than the women who had faithfully served by Jesus’s side there had been no teachings for women leaders in general to learn or present the Gospel to the emerging church.

In context of the times in which the first evangelists, teachers, and prophetesses lived, they were the living epistles. There wasn’t a convenient King James Bible sitting on the family table for them to refer to when things got challenging. No, they were making history as they became the first messengers of the Gospel.

Now, this is where women’s rights really get interesting. In 1 Timothy 2:15 we see this scripture,

“Women shall be saved through the bearing of children if they continue in faith and love and sanctity with self-restraint.”

Timothy 2:15

What kind of salvation is Timothy talking about? This salvation cannot be from eternal damnation because Jesus provided that on the Cross. According to the context, it has to be salvation from the consequences of Eve’s transgression in the garden since this is the subject of the discussion in 1 Timothy 2. What does childbearing have to do with generations of women’s destinies? The general interpretation points to Jesus as the seed of woman. Nevertheless, in a more specific way it may refer to evangelism as inferred by the Greek word tekno gonea which is translated as bearing of children. This word is used only once in the New Testament and also means begetting children.
Physiologically speaking, women can bear children but cannot beget them. Begetting is something only men can do because inception requires depositing the seed inside of the woman. Therefore, it follows that Paul must be acknowledging something else. I surmise that it is the begetting of spiritual children.

That line of reasoning is consistent with the context of Timothy 1:15-2:15 which is the passage that demonstrates prayer based evangelism. It is also harmonious with the well known section on women evangelists in Psalm 68:11 where we read, “The Lord gives the command; the women who proclaim the gospel are a great host.” This is an astounding verse that I believe speaks of the women’s movement that is happening right now in the body of Christ. God calls them the “warring women of Zion.”

“God Almighty declares the word of the gospel and the warring women of Zion deliver its message: “The conquering legions have themselves been conquered. Look at them flee!”

Psalm 68:11-12

Now Zion’s women are left to gather the spoils.” There is a movement happening and people are starting to pay attention. Abuse and neglect of women throughout the ages have been a ploy of satan due to his fear of empowered women but we know that her Seed shall shortly crush satan under his heel according to Genesis 3:15.

“And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.”

Genesis 3:15

I believe many women are rising up with the right heart, empowered by the Holy Spirit, to do great exploits for the Kingdom of God. It is our responsibility as spiritual leaders to be part of equipping women for ministry in this season. Our prayer is for women to be healed of neglect and abuse from the past season and be released through apostolic ministry into this new movement. We decree, “Let the warring women of Zion arise!”

I was praying one morning on August 8, 2018, when the Lord Jesus visited me and said, “The journey is going to begin, prepare for it.” Now that sentence can mean many things to many people. As I sought the Lord further on this, the Lord graciously said to me the following night, “Let us study now about how to prepare for the journey.” He then asked, “Are you ready?” I answered, “Yes Lord,” and quickly grabbed my notebook and began to jot down everything the Lord taught me concerning how we should prepare for the journey.

The journey is going to begin, and we must prepare it. The journey that’s going to begin will last throughout the reign of the anti-Christ when the mark of the beast will be introduced. It will be a sort-of “shoe-string wilderness survival” for the remnant. That is survival for the remnant, not for the mass of Christians, because they are going to fall away (2 Thes 2:1-3). A large percentage of Christians will fall away and queue to take the mark of the beast.

The first phase of the journey is to survive in this end-times “wilderness.” This phase ends upon the return of the Lord Jesus back to this earth. During the Lord’s reign on this earth, phase two of the journey begins, and it lasts for 1,000 years – the Millennial reign of Christ Jesus. Phase three of the journey begins after the 1,000-year reign of peace and tranquillity when the devil is released from the bottomless pit for a period of 3 1/2 years. During this time, the remnant together with the saints in glory and the mighty angels will war with the devil, his evil angels and the reprobate unrepentant nations. The Lord destroys the devil and annihilates hell and death forever. Phase four of the journey begins when we, together with the Lord – will help create the new heaven and new earth and replenish it. Does the journey end after that? No, a new fresh journey begins. This new journey – the fifth – a journey of grace – where the remnant together with the redeemed saints will travel the universe to preach the everlasting gospel of the manifold mercies and goodness of a God who is abundantly...

So, how do we prepare for this exciting journey? We can learn the methods from how the Israelites themselves were told to prepare for their journey. While in Egypt, they were told to prepare for a journey in the wilderness and then onwards to the Promised Land.

Israelites told to prepare

They were told to prepare to leave Egypt after being there – living a life of slavery and bondage – for 430 years. How were they told to get ready? The Lord God never leaves anything for imagination. He gave them explicit instructions what to do. When you begin the journey, you must do things by the principles of the kingdom of God.

First, they were told to prepare and eat a lamb (Ex 12:3-6). They were told how to prepare a lamb and eat carefully.

Second, they were told to be fully dressed because the journey can begin anytime which is similar to what the apostle Paul counsels us in Ephesians 6:13,

Therefore take up the whole armour of God that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
Ephesians 6:13

Evil days are already here now! We do not need to wait for the future for evil day to manifest; it is already here. You should have the armour on 24/7 – preparedness at all times!

They were also told to have their loins fully girded (Ex 12:11). In 1 Kings 18:46 we read that after the showdown on Mount Carmel the prophet Elijah girded his loins for his supernatural journey towards Jezreel. The Lord Jesus counsels us in Luke 12:35,

Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning;” Be girded, and be prepared.
Luke 12:35

Third, they were told to put on their shoes. What does that represent? The Bible counsels us in Ephesians 6:15 to put on our feet, with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

Ephesians 6:15

The Scriptures further tells us that in the last days we should preach the Gospel of the Kingdom of God (Matt 24:14). The gospel that we now preach is not the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. The Gospel that we have been preaching is called the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is: Jesus Christ came, He died, and He rose again. Period. However, the Gospel of the Kingdom is: Jesus Christ came, He died, He rose again, and is coming back again. Not only is He coming back again, but the Kingdom of God is coming together with Him. This is the Gospel of the Kingdom.

Fourth, they were told to have a staff in their hands. It is not just meant for a walking stick but doubles as a weapon to fend off bandits along the way. The last days’ remnant is admonished in Joel 3:10 to,

Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears; Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.
Joel 3:10

“Prepare, prepare for war.”
Joel 3:9

Two times you will read written there, prepare for war, prepare for war. So the staff that was used to lead and to guide becomes a weapon in the last days. The plowshares and pruning hooks that were used for farming is converted into swords and spears.
because you have to face a war in the last days.

Fifth, they were told to eat in haste – quickly. The word “haste” in Hebrew is chuwsh meaning to hurry; to be eager with excitement or enjoyment. They were told to be eager with excitement for their deliverance was at hand. We are also told in 2 Peter 3:11-12 as:

Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness.
Looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?

2 Peter 3:11-12

The word “hastening” in this Scripture in Greek is speudo meaning strengthened; to “speed” (“study”), i.e., urge on (diligently or earnestly); by implication, to await eagerly. Therefore, we are admonished to look forward with earnest eagerness the coming of the Lord during our journey.

Sixth, they were told to get jewelry, gold, silver, and clothes from the Egyptians (Ex 12:35-36). They were told to get them, partly, to finance the building of the Tabernacle in the wilderness (Ex 25:2-8). How does this apply for us in the last days’ journey? There is going to come a great transference of wealth from the wicked to the righteous (Pro 13:22). A great transference of wealth is going to take place in the last days (Isa 60:5; Nah 2:9; Zech 14:14). However, please be forewarned: this transference of wealth is not for you to build your empire.

When this last days’ wealth comes, it is for two purposes. One is for the hastening of the work of God in the last days. Two is to help the poor people. There are always the poor, the needy, the hungering, the homeless, and widows always around you. We should do charitable works not only for Christians but even to non-Christians. The Bible says that God is good and impartial to all – the good and the wicked. Give liberally.

Covenant Relationship
The first important preparation for a journey begins with a covenant relationship with God. The covenant relationship came from the lamb they ate before the journey began. The lamb, as every believer knows very well, represents eating the flesh and drinking the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. The last days the remnant need to have the kind of covenant relationship based on Revelation 12:11:

> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

Revelation 12:11

This sort of covenant relationship will enable the remnant to survive in the last days.

Sanctification
The second important preparation for the journey is sanctification. In Exodus 13:2 we read:

> Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine.

Exodus 13:2

“Consecrate” or “sanctify” means to set apart for God. When you set something – either a thing or a person – apart for God it becomes a holy thing. If it becomes a holy thing, it cannot be used or misused even for your own need. That brings us to the realization that you do not belong to yourself because 1 Corinthians 6:20 says, “For you were bought at a price;
therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which is God’s.”

As I meditated on this Scripture, it suddenly made me deeply realize if we are bought with a price the owner who paid the price has full authority and ownership of us. We do not own ourself anymore. Then we are no longer the boss of our life anymore. You are a slave of Christ Jesus (1 Cor 7:22). So if you are not yours and you are now a slave how can you then run your life by yourself? How can you decide for yourself? When this realization sinks in you, you are ready to begin your journey towards the Promised Land. Therefore, we are called to live a holy life (1 Thes 4:7; 5:23).

The Lord God told the Israelites, “remember you came out of bondage” (Ex 13:3). That is to remind us that we have been set free from sin (Rom 6:22). When you are set free, you should no more be slaves to sin rather be slaves of righteousness (Rom 6:20). We should no more yield our members to unrighteousness, but yield your members to righteousness.

I meditated on this Scripture for a long time one morning and finally found a key how anyone can live a life without sinning – knowingly or unknowingly. The key is: to know that you have been bought with a price and you are not yours anymore. You do not belong to anyone; you belong only to the Lord Jesus.

The Israelites were told not to eat any leavened bread (Ex 13:3). They were supposed to eat only unleavened bread. “Leaven,” the Lord Jesus explains in Luke 12:1 signifies an old life or hypocrisy. The last days’ remnant must pay heed to 1 Corinthians 5:8:

Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:8

We must put away hypocrisy, malice and wickedness out of our lives. Instead, eat only the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Supernatural Guidance

The Israelites were not on the journey all by themselves, but they had supernatural guidance from God. God Himself guided them (Ex 13:18). In the journey that you are going to embark in these last days, history will repeat itself. God wants to lead you and talk to you directly because you are His son, you are His daughter, and He is your Father. What good is a family relationship if they are not talking to each other? How can it be a family? Since God is your father and you are His sons and daughters, He wants to communicate with you directly.

We further read in Exodus 13:17, “Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, “Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.” God wants to lead you gently like a shepherd. He knows you cannot endure war. Some can; many cannot. That is why the Lord allows some people to die early. He knows they cannot endure what is going to come in the last days. The Bible assures us God knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, trials, and difficulties (2 Peter 2:9). Therefore, we should always pray, “Lord, protect and deliver me from all evil” (Matt 6:13).

The Lord not only guided them but He also went before them. Exodus 13:21 says,

And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night.

Exodus 13:21

See, how good God is! He will lead you, He will guide you, and He will enlighten you so that no evil befalls you.

Enemy Comes to Ensnare

Just when the Israelites thought all was over and they were out of bondage Pharaoh came with an army to capture and enslave them again (Ex 14:5-9). Just when you thought the devil has been bound and cast into the bottomless pit, but after 1,000 years he is released (Rev 20:7-9). The goal of the enemy is to ensnare and entrap you back to Egypt—old ways and life of sin and bondage. The goal of the enemy is to cause you to think that your deliverance was not complete; to cause you to think that your healing and deliverance are not complete. The enemy intends to cause you to doubt that all the promises that God gave you will not come to pass.

What did the Israelites do when in such a situation? They cried out to God (Ex 14:10). They tore their hearts and cried until there were no more tears. That is what the last days’ remnant should do too—pray for deliverance (Lk 11:4). The Lord Jesus prayed a similar prayer for us too: “I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one” (Jn 17:15).

When they cried out to God, He supernaturally delivered them by parting the Red Sea (Ex 14:16,21-22). There will always be a supernatural deliverance in your life. Whenever you face a roadblock in your journey, the cardinal rule is: don’t figure with your natural mind what to do. Instead, bend your knees fast, pray, and cry out to God for deliverance. When you do, He will make a way where there seems no way.

The Baptism

The third important preparation in the journey is baptism.

they [Israelites] were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea.

1 Corinthians 10:2

What does this baptism signify? When we were baptized in the water, Romans 6:3 says, we are baptized into the Lord Jesus’ death.

Romans 6:3

However, what does it mean? Romans 6:4 says, that we were.

When you are baptized you not only died but also buried. When you are dead and buried, you do not live anymore. Your self too is dead and buried. The self of pride, greed, and arrogance are all buried in the water. When this truth sinks inside only then can you truly live the Galatians 2:20 lifestyle:

I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Galatians 2:20

Living the Galatians 2:20 lifestyle brings you to the Romans 6:6 lifestyle:

knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin.

Romans 6:6
You must now live and walk in newness of life and don't serve sin anymore

Supernatural Provision
While explaining all these, the Lord Jesus looked at me and said, “When I lead I will provide” – supernatural provision. The Book of Exodus records of two incidents of supernatural provision during the early part of the Israelites’ journey in the wilderness. God rained down manna—angels’ food from heaven (Ex 16; Ps 78:25). Moreover, He provided them with water (Ex 17:1-6). Likewise, God promises to provide food and water to the last days’ remnant (Isa 33:16).

In the last days, during the tribulation days, the remnant will suffer hunger, thirst, and the sun will beat upon them, but the Lamb of God will be in their midst to lead, to guide and to provide (Rev 7:17).

Enemies Along the Journey
The Israelites encountered enemies along the journey. After the Egyptian, a new enemy in the form of the Amalekites came against them (Ex 17:8). God told the prophet Moses to go to war with them.

Now, this is something exciting. In Exodus 14:12-14, God told the prophet Moses that He will fight for them. However, now at the Valley of Rephidim, He asks them to go and fight. Why the seeming difference? Having seen the Lord fight for them, the Lord now trains them to fight for themselves. Similarly, the Bible tells us that there is a war for the last day’s remnant in the end times. The beast will make war with the remnant and with the saints of God (Rev 11:7; 12:17; 13:7).

This last days’ war which the remnant will face is not a spiritual war but a natural war. In August 2018, I met with Mark Johnson, the beloved son of our dear Brother Neville Johnson, in Lancaster, California. While we were fellowshipping, I asked him what was he now doing and what was God preparing him for? He said that God was teaching and training him to raise an army of the remnant for the last days’ war. Mark shared that the Lord told him, “I am going to teach you and prepare you so that you can train the remnant army to war.” It is going to be a real war and not just a spiritual war. The last days’ war in the end-times will take place in both realms—spiritual and earthly (Rev 12:7-11).

So what must we do? Learn the art of spiritual warfare from the heavenly army. Joshua learned that from an Angel—captain of the Lord’s host (Josh 5:13-15). Get ready to turn your pruning hooks into a sword and spear. Prepare for war. Who are the Amalekites who came against the Israelites? “Amalekites” signify hindrances that will prevent you from coming to meet with the Lord Jesus. Hindrances that will prevent you from attaining full sonship. Hindrances that will prevent you from attaining the maturity of the fullness of the matured sons and daughters of God.

Team Ministry
The other important aspect that was born in the wilderness journey is team ministry (Ex 18). The prophet Moses was the only administrator and judge for a nation of at least three million people. His father-in-law visits and saw him counseling people from dawn to dusk. He then counsels the prophet Moses to raise leaders and delegate them with authority. The concept of team ministry was born. Many churches adopted that concept and called it Cell Church system.

That tells us that the last days’ army must work in unison as one body and team (Joel 2:4-11). No one backstabs anybody, and nobody has any feeling of insecurity. The Lord God is their Commander who as the Lion of Judah will roar before His army to lead them.

Mount Sinai
Finally, the Israelites came to Mount Sinai and camped there for a while (Ex 19:2). The first phase of their journey came to an end. When they camped before Mount Sinai, two things happened. Firstly, camping before Mount Sinai signifies waiting on God, waiting for God, and waiting together with God. They waited for God before His holy mountain. Secondly, while the whole nation camped the prophet Moses went up to the mount (Ex 19:3). He went up the mount to seek directions from God.

That tells us, in the journey that we are now treading, we need to learn the art of waiting on, for and before God so that we can seek directions from Him. To survive in the end-times, you must learn how to wait on God, seek directions from him, and learn to hear from Him. When you do that, as God talked with the prophet Moses so will He will teach you, and guide you (Ps 32:8).

When you seek God with all your heart, He will teach you; he will guide you and bring you to the next phase of the journey He has planned for the last days’ remnant. The journey is going to begin, and you need to prepare for the journey.
To say that this year has been a whirlwind of ministry and adventure is a gross understatement. So far this has been the busiest year of ministry and life as a whole that we’ve had. From moving to a new home to ministering in nations we’ve never been before and traveling over 100,000 miles, publishing our latest books and witnessing the changing of the prophetic season and hurling towards a biblical conclusion of this age.

Throughout this hectic schedule we have not neglected our precious alone time with the Lord as that is the foundation of our life. A number of the encounters I’ve had this year indicate a move of God is quickly approaching and the end time harvest is soon to follow.

In July of this year I had an encounter with the Lord. I was taken in the spirit to stand before the Lord’s throne and receive an audience with the King. Standing behind Him on His right side was a company of angels dressed in a way I’d not seen before. They were wearing what looked like work clothes; a blend of many cultural styles. What really stood out and captured my interest were what looked like sickles in their hands.

I immediately asked the Lord what the purpose of these angels were and what it was they were to harvest. He responded to me that they were harvesting angels and were prepared to harvest the earth. Their ‘crop’ was to be the tares of the earth. (Matt 13:36-40)

Again, I saw on Jesus’ left side a company of angels dressed in bright shining white linen. I asked Him who these angels were and what was their purpose. Jesus once again responded to me that they were His harvesting angels ready to be sent forth to harvest the earth.

Immediately I realized that we are in a season of culling and cleansing as... well as harvest. I was excited and at the same time I was filled with a dread I could not explain. I recognize in that moment that a time had come where those who have been sowing wickedness and poison were about to reap the fruit of what they had done.

Scripture teaches us that the Lord’s purposes are first revealed in the natural then the spiritual (1 Cor. 15:46). In the United States we see an unfolding of this very thing as corruption and lawlessness is being uncovered and revealed in the highest levels of government. The tares are being exposed and removed.

Next will be the exposing of the tares within the church. You may argue that ‘judgment begins in the house of God’ and you are correct, however we are not talking about judgment here. This is a natural process and result of that which has been sown (tares in this case) coming to maturity. Biblical principle according to the scripture is that once the tares reach maturity the Lord sends forth His angels to cull out the false and leave the true standing.

As I was standing before the Lord, having had my questions answered, the Lord looked over His right shoulder and spoke to the group of angels with the sickles; “Go!”

Immediately those angels vanished and dispersed throughout the earth to begin their task. Again, the Lord looked over His left shoulder and said, “Prepare!” Instantly that company of angels stood to attention.

Jesus then looked back at me with a burning fire in His eyes; a fire of passion and purpose, of love and purpose, of holiness and purity. I stood trembling and in awe as I was once again returned to my natural senses.

On Rosh Ha Shanna this year, the 9th of September, in the evening when I was praying and seeking the Lord, Jesus appeared to me in my Prayer Room. He was wearing a red robe over His white garments. There was no conversation, however instinctively I felt to embrace Him. He held me for a time (meaningless in that realm). I was being infused with His love and strength, His peace and a great assurance.

As I basked in His love, a verse from Song of Solomon came to mind,

“Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?”

Song of Solomon 8:5

The next instance I found myself standing beside the Lord and we were looking into Heaven, or the Paradise of God.

This is what I understood from this visitation: In this New Year, 5779, we are entering into a time of ever-increasing intimacy with the Lord. Because of this intimacy we will be greatly comforted in the days ahead, infused with His love, strength, wisdom, power, knowledge and understanding. As part of this increase, we will have greater access into the Heavenly Realms on a regular basis.

On the second evening of Rosh Ha Shanna, the 10th of September 2018, I was again in my prayer room with my wife this time. As we were worshiping the Lord, I had an encounter in which I saw vast multitudes of the saints as well as the angelic host standing and looking at the earth. Jesus Himself stood among them. It was as if they were awaiting a signal or command.

There was also a chariot of fire there and I recognized an old friend, a being that looks like a white horse. I walked up to him and gave him a hug and said, “I’ve missed you friend.”

I felt the warmth of his love and acceptance of my display of affection for him. He said, “Shortly now.”

When he communicated that to me,
I instantly knew that the final harvest is about to be released and all of heaven will be participating - the angelic host, the cloud of witnesses and Jesus Himself.

My question for all of us at this time is have we prepared our hearts and minds for the day that has now come upon us? Have we positioned ourselves in Him to fulfill our end time destiny – to be part of a large company, both in heaven and on the earth, that have a unique mandate at the end of the age – to bring in this final harvest?

If you’ve not considered this question before I urge you to do so now. We are on the brink of the greatest move of God this world will ever know. The shift we have all been sensing throughout this year is the preparation and leadup time to the commencement of this final great awakening.

From this fall (in the Northern Hemisphere) forward we will begin to witness an increase in the move of the Spirit of the Lord in ways we’ve never seen before. Spontaneous outbreaks of His glory and revival will begin to take place in the most unlikely of places as the Lord’s heavenly host once again interacts with the earth to cultivate and reap a final harvest.
Joel 2:28 will become an experiential reality to many that never even asked for an encounter with the Lord as He visits His body upon the earth.

Long forgotten dreams and prophetic destiny’s will be renewed and released as that for which you have been created for will now spring forth. Nations will be swept into the Kingdom as this move of God sweeps the earth and an unprecedented release of extraordinary signs, wonders and miracles begin to impact our communities.

Visitations of the heavenly host will be seen and experienced by large gatherings of the saints and the merging of the church in heaven and upon the earth becomes a living, tangible reality in this time.

This up-swelling of heavenly manifestations will begin slowly but at an appointed time will sweep the earth quickly as the Lord visits
His people once again as He did in the gospels after His resurrection.
The powers of the age to come will be displayed among the faithful as the Lord releases these powers to effectively confirm the preaching of the Kingdom of Heaven.

I encourage all of you to seek the Lord
now so you are ready at a moment’s notice for this spiritual “deployment” and end time assignment. THIS is what you have been sensing and longing for! This is your destiny!
